

Let's not start a war of "big media" where the candidate with the loudest voice is the one that panders best to big media's interests. Do your job and make sure that no one takes unfair advantage of the rules that provide "equal time" when it comes to the use of the public airwaves. Ed and Barbara Mann.